

Healthy Horse Training Courses

Terms and conditions

Enrollment onto the Equine Sports Massage Course you agree to the following terms and conditions:

Course fees to be paid in full at time of enrollment.

Refunds. There is a 14 day cooling off period in place from the date of invoice. The student reserves the right to cancel their place on the course and receive a full refund during these 14 days. After this time payment is non refundable.

Courses can be deferred to another date if the student is unable to attend for good reason.

Your course will start as soon as you receive your pre course work.

All learning material is for your own use. You are not permitted to share,download or distribute any course material belonging to Healthy Horse Training Courses

All Theory must be completed before attending practical training days.

Although different venues are available at different locations, you should be expected to travel to attend practical day.

The practical exam will take place on the final day of your practical training days. Students must pass all aspects of the exam in order to gain certification.

Students can resit failed exams, which will incur an additional charge.

Travel and accommodation is at your own expense.

Healthy Horse Training Courses reserves the right to alter the advertised schedule of practical training days where certain circumstances are beyond our control. Alternative dates/locations will be offered, along with deferment if the new dates are not suitable.